POLITICAL MANOEUVRE

Hanna's Pension Bill Will Never Be Passed.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The House to-day adopted the conference report by a vote of 215 to 10. One Republican (Mr. Littlefield, of Maine) and nine Democrats voted against this action."

Several Democrats took the position that the "Nelson amendment" to the mat the Vesson amendment to the Bureau of Corporations was a weak and Ineffectual attempt to provide the machinery for corporation publicity. Mr. Mann, of Illinois, on behalf of the Republicans, contended on the contrary that it was a better measure of publicity than had been presented in any other bill.

than had been presented in any other bill.

After this conference report was disposed of the remainder of the day was devoted to the sundry civil appropriation bill. Mr. Cannon, chairman of the Appropriation Committee, gave notice that at the proper time he would move two amendments—one to provide for the purchase of a site and the erection of a three-story 400-room office building for members, to be connected with the Capitol by a subway and to cost $3,800,000, and the other an appropreation of $4,800,000 to carry out the original plans for beautifying and enlarging the main wing of the Capitol.

Mr. De Armond, of Missouri, denominated the bill recently introduced by Senator Hanna to pension the ex-slaves a "curious evidence of the prevailing trend of politics," which was "more valuable as a piece of political manocuvreing than as a piece of prospective legislation." The introducer of the bill, he said, announced that he was not a candidate for the presidency, but from the same authority came the announcement that there were no trusts. The exact facts could, he said, be balanced in the public mind after a study of both statements.

It was a farce, he said, but still farces had their solemn aspects. And it was sobering to think of the old negroes in their cabins in the South giving up their earnings until the time came when they would turn for relief to their natural protectors—the white people of the South. (Democratic applause.)

Mr. Cannan, in sally treated the content of the south.

LOST—WEDNESDAY, JAN. 27H, NEAR Twenty-third and Venable Streets, an Italian Grey HOUND. Answers to name of "Nellie." Reward will be paid for return to J. M. PITT, this office.

Department of Commerce bill was presented Mr. Richardson, of Alabama, said he did not believe the Nelson amendment was almed at the trusts.

It was "a pretext and a subterfuge." Mr. Ball, of Texas, who followed Mr. Richardson, ridiculed the programme of the administration regarding anti-trust legislation. The administration, he said, was represented as anxious to secure the passage of the Nelson and Elkins bills, and it was pretended that the Standard Oll Company was sending telegrams to prominent Senators against their passage. He did not believe it. "If do not believe," said he, "that John D. Rockefeller or any other trust magnate has raised a protest against the homeopathic doses in those bills. They are no more harmful to trusts than would be Mrs. Winslow's soothing syrup, He called attention to the language of the amendment that the information obtained by the Bureau of Corporations, "or so much thereof as the President shall direct, shall be made public."

He did not doubt the honesty of the present executive, but suppose another man more friendly to trusts should be elected. Then, what would the Nelson amendment amount to?

The previous question was ordered and the report was adopted—251 to 10.

It was agreed that at the session on Sunday, February 22d, eulogies to the memory of the late Representative Moody, of North Carolina, should be in order.

tention to the fact that senator. Harman's bill had been introduced "by request."

But Mr. Richardson, of Tennessee, put a different view on the matter. He stated seriously that companies were already being formed and circulars were being sent out to ignorant colored people by unscrupulous adventurers, and he thought both should join in assurance to them not to invest their quarters and dimes in this chimerical scheme.

Mr. Cannon responded that all should understand, rich and poor, while and black, cultured and ignorant, that the government promised to all allike equality before the law and equality of opportunity, and under it each must work out his own salvation.

Mr. De Armond was not satisfied with this statement, but asked for a more specific assurance, and in reply Mr. Cannon stated with emphasis that it the ignorant were being imposed upon they should be undeceived; that in his judsment, no such bill could or would pass.

NOT AIMED AT, TRUSTS.

When the conference report on the bill, when more important measures were awaiting action.

The whole world knew, he said, that the trust bill was no more than "a mush poulitice," to be put on the people to alleviate pain. The object was not to defeat the admission of the Territories as States, but something else lies behind it for which there is no excuse.

The Rawlins resolution regarding courts-martial cases in the Philippines was referred to the Committee on Philippines by a yea and may vote-36 to 23.

Mr. Hanna presented the conference report on the department of commerce bill; final vote on it being deferred until to-morrow in order that it might be printed. The conference report on the general sinf bill was agreed to.

At 15:25 P. M. the Senate adjourned after a brief executive session.

KILLED HIMSELF

Young Augusta County Farmer Who Had Recently Married.

Had Recently Married.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

STAUNTON, VA., Feb. 10.—David Reed, a young farmer, twenty-two years old and son of Alegander Reed, of Mt. Sidney, committed suicide this morning by shooting himself. He went out in the field some distance from the house and, placing the muzzle of the gun near his heart, pulled the trigger. He died in a few moments. Mr. Reed and his father, for whom he worked on the farm, had a quarrel, and this is the only reason that can be assigned for his committing suicide. He had been married only a short time.

MASKELYNE'S CREW SAVED BY BRITISH BARK

(By Associated Press.) QUEENSTOWN, ENG., February 10.-The British bark Crown of Germany, from San Francisco for this port, arrived to-day and landed thirty of the crew of the Belgian steamer Maskelyne, Captain Tanner, from New Orleans and Newport News, for Antwerp. The steamer was abandoned in a sinking condition on Jan-abandoned in a sinking condition unity fist.

The Maskelyne had been quite unmanageable since January 24th. All the fires were extinguished and water that flooded her stoke-holes and engine-room. When the steamer was abandoned she was so nearly full of water that she could not long remain affeat.

A premium of sixty guineas for reinsurance of the Maskelyne had been paid of Lloyds.

Pending Legislative Measures of Impor tance.

Sir,-Is it not somewhat surprising that the House of Delegates should be quibbling and squirming over the passage of the Barksdale pure election bill? It passed the Senate almost unani-mously, yet the House thinks it requires polishing, and after careful considera-tion by a committee it emerges with an amendment "corruptly" prefixed before amendment "corruptly" prefixed before the use of money.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch:

It is the opinion of the patron of the bill that this one word virtually kills it—and this opinion is shared by a majority of those who wish to see an absolutely pure election bill passed.

It simply means that no poor man, however deserving, may combat against an opponent with money.

The careful reader of ancient history will recall the circumstap o that it was the use of money in elections that caused the downfall of the Roman Empire.

Plutarch tells us "that buying and selling crept in at their elections, and money became an ingredient in the public suffrages, proceeding thence to attempt their tribunals, and even attack their camps, till, by hiring the valiant and ensiaving iron to sliver, it grew master of the State and turned their Commonwealth into a monarchy."

For it was well and truly said that the first destroyer of the liberties of a people is he who first gives them bounties and largesses.

These morals of the ancient writers are full of warning to the present generation.

full of warning to the present generation.

It is also surprising to observe the indifference of the House to the passage of "the Mann liquor bill" and how quicklys they run after new issues.

The Mann bill is pure and simply "home rule" in the country, while the Claytor dispensary would fasten a political gin ishor upon the Commonwealth.
Give us the Barksdale pure election bill and the Mann liquor bill, with a promise of a good roads bill in the near future, and our Commonwealth will presper and flourish. prosper and flourish.

RUSSIAN OFFICERS TO BE IN READINESS

IONDON, February 10,—It is announced n a dispatch to a news agency from St. Petersburg that all the officers of the Russian army reserves have been notified to hold themselves in readiness to rejoin their regiments in twenty-four hours in the event of mobilization orders being Issued. The measure, it is added, appears to be connected with fears of trouble in the Balkans.

the association, Mr. Hart, for the very complete arrangements he had made for hotel accommodations in Jacksonville. By his efficiency there was no delay at the depot, but the members of the association were quickly divided among the best hotels. The day has been spent in seeing the points of interest, almost all taking in the estrich farm among other sights. Courtesies were extended the members of the staff of the Times-Union. The Jacksonville Street Railway Company tendered a very delightful trolley trip, taking in the residential portion of the city and parks, which are unsurpassed by any Southern city.

JACKSONVILLE, FLA., Feb. 10.—The first section of the Virginia Press Association reached this city at 9:15 this morning, the train being promptly on time. The trip down was without special incident, and the members of the association were loud in their praise of the manner in which the Seaboard Air Line handled the crowd and very appreclative of the many courtesles extended. Much praise is due the secretary of the association, Mr. Hart, for the very
